

My dear friend

Allow me to introduce to thee, & thro' thee to the Boston friends - my friend Sam<sup>l</sup> Sellers. The object for which he seeks an interview with you he will himself explain. His own rare integrity & probability of character warrant confidence in the statements he may make of his friend John W. Collins - for whom, doubtless, the feelings of days past - when he did the state some service - will commend to your consideration.

With kind greetings to the household of faith - Cordially, thine & thine
